VNA Welcomes New President & CEO

The Board of Trustees of the Visiting Nurse Association of Somerset Hills has appointed Daniel E. Powell President and Chief Executive Officer. Powell, former Board Chairman of the VNA of Somerset Hills, served as the agency's Interim Chief Executive Officer since February 2016. Charles A. Reid, III, Esq., previously 2nd Vice-Chair, has been named Chair of the Board of Trustees, filling the vacancy left by Powell.

Over the course of his career, Powell has specialized in leading performance improvement initiatives to grow revenues, reduce costs and improve operations as an operating executive, strategic consultant, and private equity professional. In addition to serving as a CEO and as an adviser to Boards of Directors for several companies in the consumer product, retail, business service and wholesale distribution industries, he has also been active in the banking, private equity, and management consulting industries. He received a bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, from Williams College, and holds a master's degree in business administration from Harvard University, Graduate School of Business.

Daniel E. Powell has been appointed President and CEO of the VNA of Somerset Hills.

Investors Foundation Supports the Adult Day Club

Thanks to a generous grant of $4,000 from Investors Foundation members of the Adult Day Club (ADC) will be able to continue to enjoy the music therapy and cultural arts programs offered at the Club. Funded by Investors Bank, the Investors Foundation, is dedicated to supporting non-profit organizations that improve the communities they serve.

“We are enormously grateful for the generosity of Investors Foundation,” said Marie Sperber, VP of Business Development & Philanthropy at the VNA of Somerset Hills. “Their grant makes it possible for the ADC to continue to offer a wide range of enrichment activities designed to enhance the quality of life of our members.”

In addition to the Foundation grant, several volunteers from the Pluckemin Branch of Investors Bank participated in a Day of Sharing at the ADC. “These enthusiastic, caring volunteers did an excellent job engaging our members in a variety of group activities brightening up their day,” stated Maria Keenan, ADC Manager. “We truly appreciate their commitment to the ADC and our mission.”

Employee volunteers from Investors Bank recently spent a day socializing with our Adult Day Club members.
